

WANTED: CAMPUS MINISTER

First Presbyterian Church of Tuscaloosa seeks a full-time Associate Pastor of Campus Ministry. The Associate Pastor will lead Bama UKirk, a community that gathers regularly for worship, fellowship, service, meals, study, recreation and fun. The Campus Minister will represent First Presbyterian Church to the students of The University of Alabama and be the intermediary between Bama UKirk and the church. The congregation of First Presbyterian Church is committed to supporting a ministry presence at The University of Alabama, while encouraging students to engage in the life, work and worship of our congregation. A demonstration of that commitment is UPerk, the coffee shop FPC built which serves as a hub for campus ministry and community engagement (uperk.org). We want to meet students where they are, encourage them in life, and help them grow in faith while also making a difference in our community and beyond. Potential Candidates send PIF/resume to bamaukirk@gmail.com. Also, open to considering candidates on an interim basis to begin the '19-'20 school year.

Are U being called to join Us at UKirk?
Campus Ministry Candidates, let us hear

What Is UKirk?

UKirk is the Presbyterian (USA) college ministry in Tuscaloosa, but we welcome everybody! Every Tuesday night during the school year, we have worship at 6:38 pm at our nonprofit coffee shop, UPerk. Worship with us is different than what you may expect. Our style is laid-back. Our music is acoustic. And we're big on creating a space where everybody feels like they have a place. We are an intentionally inclusive ministry, so if church isn't normally your thing, no worries. We're not looking to brow-beat or force anything on you. We just believe Jesus loves everybody and calls us to do the same. So come on and check us out! And if you don't dig worship, that's cool. Grab a coffee or a sandwich at UPerk and make yourself at home!
