

Racial Justice Pilgrimage 2022

THOUSANDS OF AFRICAN AMERICANS ARE UNKNOWN VICTIMS OF RACIAL TERROR. THE ONLY REASON SOME SURVIVED IS BECAUSE OF PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS.

Join Our Pilgrimage

Travel by van from Birmingham to Selma to Montgomery on a three-day immersion into the history of the Civil Rights Movement within our Presbytery. In discussions about racial injustice, explore ways to engage in response. Using the Gospel definition of 'neighbor', become better equipped to meet Christ's call to love our neighbors as ourselves.

For protection of our participants, COVID vaccinations and indoor masks will be required
Participants will be walking up to a half mile and standing for lectures in museums for up to 45 minutes

For Information, contact
Debra Love - debralove@e3solve.com
Lou Ann Sellers - lasellers@fpcusc.org

Registration limited to 30 persons
To register, visit www.pslpcusa.org or use QR code below

March 17 - 19

What You Will Experience:

- Birmingham Civil Rights Museum
- Selma Museums
- Edmund Pettus Bridge
- Montgomery Museums
- Equal Justice Institute
- Museum Docent facilitated reflections
- Fellowship and discussions with other Presbyterians
- A follow-up group meeting in April

What Will It Cost?

Cost to participant

Registration fee $25

Hotel two night with breakfast, total approximately $240/room
+ taxes and fees

Two dinners and two lunches

Costs covered by Anti-Racism Committee

Van transportation

Museum entrance and docent fees

Lunch on Thursday

Pilgrimage sponsored by Anti-Racism Committee Presbytery of Sheppards and Lapsley