

MMIW

MAY 3, 2018

Outreach Event and Awareness Walk

MASTER OF CEREMONIES: Darren Brown

1:00 PM TO 3:30 PM

Tribal domestic violence/
sexual assault table displays

1:15 PM TO 3:00 PM

OPENING PRAYER:

Gordon Yellowman

LORD'S PRAYER IN SIGN LANGUAGE:

Darlington Indian Club

WELCOME:

Dawn Stover, Executive Director of the
Native Alliance Against Violence

OPENING REMARKS BY:

Reggie Wassana, Governor, Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes Governor

Malinda McQueen, Advocate, Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes Domestic Violence Program

REMARKS BY:

James Bywater, MS, LPC-S, NCC, Supervisor,
Behavioral Health Clinical Services, Cherokee Nation, Tahlequah — Adult Clinic: James will discuss the benefits of using a therapy dog in providing services to people affected by trauma.
Cotton, his service/therapy dog will be joining him
and will be available for everyone to meet.

REMARKS BY:

Darcie Parton Scoon — Darcie operates her own investigation agency and will discuss the pro bono services she provides to assist in finding Oklahoma's missing native children.

PRESENTATION BY:

Karen Kaniatobe, Education Coordinator,
Native Alliance Against Violence - "Creating Sustainable Change to End Violence Against Native Women"

VOICES OF THE LOVED ONES OF MISSING AND MURDERED NATIVE WOMEN:

Kim Merryman, mother of Emily Morgan
(Choctaw Nation)

Zina Deere, sister of Ida Beard (Cheyenne and Arapaho)

WALK TO HONOR MMIW

CLOSING REMARKS

CLOSING PRAYER

Alvin Deer

Sponsored by:

Native Alliance Against Violence

& Hosted by:

Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes
Domestic Violence Program

Cheyenne and Arapaho Community Building, Concho, Oklahoma