

Summit International Medical Technologies, Inc.

Recon Direct Vial Access Bag Spike

- Utilized for drug reconstitution and transfer of drug between vial and IV bag
- Meets the requirements of USP Chapter <797> (Pharmaceutical Compounding—Sterile Preparations) for immediate point of care use
- Compatible for use with both powdered and liquid medications
- 13mm and 20mm diameter configuration options
- Universal use with all sizes of IV bags from all manufacturers with standard bag spike port
- Reduces drug and fluid waste
- Latex free
- Sterile

Customer Value Benefits:

- Optimization of drug utilization
- Cost Savings with the Reduction of medication and IV Fluid waste
- Improved Point of care use applications and more timely medication delivery to the nursing staff
- Admixture system standardization
- Helps to reduce needlestick injuries by eliminating the use of a needle for reconstitution

Product Specs:

R001	Recon Direct Vial Access Bag Spike, 20mm	50/bx
R002	Recon Direct Vial Access Bag Spike, 13mm	50/bx