INVOCATION

Ronnie Bellone, Liturgist

Gracious God, we sit in the discouraged boat of our lives, at times feeling as though our baskets are empty. Yet your mystery shimmers below the surface. Trusting in your grace, we lower the nets of prayer, open to what you provide. Bring forth gifts from the depths. Grant us the faith to continue to trust in your timely provision. Amen.

PASTORAL PRAYER & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

MUSICAL RESPONSE

SCRIPTURE

John 21: 1-14

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, 153 of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

*CLOSING HYMN

Come, Know My Joy, the Maker Says

FOREST GREEN

"Come, know my joy," the Maker says, and pours out works of pow'r
That sear the sense, defy the mind, and fill the soul with awe.
And we, with open mouths, receive God's gifts with infant need,
And, sight unfocused, scarce perceive Love's presence as we feed.

The feast we join is long begun; God bids us welcome here,
To name and use the sovereign gifts within our human care.
With God's own joy some seem to soar, a fierce and holy flame;
Some gifts are thorns we scarce endure to touch, or face, or name.

"Come, seek my face," the Giver says, with heart and soul and strength;
Let fear give way to love—come, step upon the waves of faith.
Dear Giver, Gift, we seek your face: you share our thorn, our scar.
We learn your joy when by your grace we share the gift we are.

"Come, learn of me," the Servant says, and multiplies a feast
Of loaves and fish, of bread and wine, transforming every guest.
"Come," says the Host, "from west and east; bring gifts to share.
Come, eat! None lost or wasted when God's feast of joy will be complete."

Introduce a Friend to NUCC!

Naples UCC is a welcoming and vibrant spiritual home for those new to Naples or searching for a church community. Research shows that personal invitations make the biggest impact when someone is looking for a new church, and we each have the opportunity to extend that welcome! Inspiring sermons, genuine connections, and a warm sense of belonging are what draw people in—let's continue to share that spirit. Invite a friend to a worship service or an event hosted at NUCC. Pick up a copy of our Naples UCC trifold and share what makes our church so special. A simple invitation could make all the difference!
