PASTORAL PRAYER & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

MUSICAL RESPONSE

SCRIPTURE

Matthew 7: 7-11

Rev. Jim Moseley

Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asked for bread, would give a stone? Or if the child asked for a fish, would give a snake? If you, then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

30 Good Minutes: Our Labyrinth

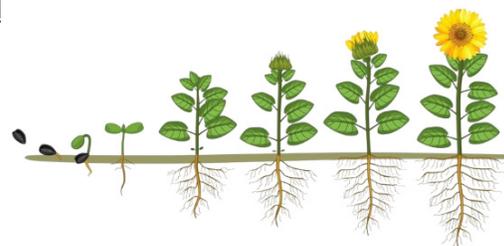

TODAY, 10:15 AM | MCSPADDEN HALL

In today's 30 Good Minutes, Naples UCC member Allison McCarthy will interview fellow member Heather English. In September 2025, Heather traveled to Chartres, France to experience the 13th century labyrinth built into the floor of the Cathedrale Notre-Dame de Chartres. In addition to walking the labyrinth, she participated in a 2-day Labyrinth Facilitator Training Program offered by Veriditas, a worldwide organization based in the US that supports the labyrinth movement. Built in 2013, the beautiful labyrinth at Naples UCC is a replica of the eleven circuit Chartres labyrinth. Heather will re-introduce the labyrinth and share some guidelines for a walking meditation as well as the stages of walking the labyrinth. During Lent, she will facilitate two labyrinth walks at 11 a.m. prior to the Lenten Meditation on Wednesday, March 18 and March 25.

2026 Stewardship Campaign

Today is the final day of our formal Stewardship Campaign. We're truly grateful for all of those who have participated to date. Thanks to your generosity, we are now at 85% of our participation goal and 80% of our $2,300,000 funding goal. If you haven't yet, please consider adding your commitment today. Every gift supports the ministries and programs that make Naples UCC great!

Pledge cards are available in the pews and the Narthex, or you can make your pledge online at NaplesUCC.org/donate. Thank you for your generosity and for helping us continue this important work!

Distinguished Speaker: Rev. Dr. Rich Kirchherr

THE 10 KEY HISTORICAL MOMENTS | MARCH 9, 1 PM | N-207
PILGRIM AND PURITAN ROOTS OF THE UCC | MARCH 10, 1 PM | N-207

We are excited to welcome Rev. Dr. Rich Kirchherr for two inspiring and informative lectures this week! A dynamic preacher, pastor, and historian, he will offer church history insights in a lecture titled "The 10 Key Historical Moments in Christianity" on March 9, followed by "Pilgrim and Puritan Roots of the UCC" on March 10.

Known for his practical and engaging style of preaching, Rev. Kirchherr served for 28 years as senior minister of First Congregational Church (UCC) in Western Springs, Illinois, helping the congregation grow and deepen both spiritually and numerically.

Rich has also been active in a number of wider ministries that are especially meaningful to him. Two of particular importance are his 20 years as a trustee of Chicago Theological Seminary and his numerous presentations to churches on "the future of the church," exploring the sociological and demographic trends shaping the next generation of church members. He earned both his Masters of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees from Chicago Theological Seminary.

Lent Wednesday Worship

WORSHIP | MARCH 11, 12 PM | SANCTUARY

DISCUSSION | MARCH 11, 12:30 PM | N-103

Each Wednesday during the season of Lent, join us for a special noontime worship series entitled "Lessons on Faith, Service, and Justice from the Prophets." The worship sermon series is inspired by Richard Rohr's book The Tears of Things: Prophetic Wisdom for an Age of Outrage. The service will feature music by Zach DePue, violin, and Dr. Alexandra Carlson, piano. This week's topic is "From the Bottom Up", Amos 7: 12-15. Following the service, come gather with Pastor Mark and the Naples UCC Justice committee in N-103 for a brown-bag lunch discussion on the topic for the day.

"We're All Plastic People Now" - Documentary Screening

MARCH 17, 4 PM | N-207

Come to a viewing of this Emmy-winning documentary by Ted Danson. In an era of throw-away ease, plastic has cost us our well-being. It's been found inside our bodies, our colons, our brains, in breast milk and developing wombs. Now, it's even in our hearts. This groundbreaking film, for the first time ever, tests the producer's blood and four generations of family members for chemicals derived from plastic. The results are alarming. The run time is 1 hour.

Women's Stories

MARCH 12, 1 PM | N-101

Join us for the second week of our current 3-week session of "Women's Stories," formerly Women Engage. This session we are guided by J. Dana Trent's story as told through her book, Between Two Trailers (2024), a We Are Wake Tech podcast (November 19, 2024) and another podcast, Grace Enough (Episode 258) with Amber Cullum.

These resources, along with Rev. Trent's sermon and lecture on February 22, present her experience in different formats. Choose the format(s) that work best for you and join us to enjoy the discussion and fellowship. Links to the podcasts and sermon were included in Friday's e-blast. The resources will guide each weekly discussion, but the conversation will follow the group's interests and comments. This is a unique opportunity to connect with other women in our church community and gather to listen and engage through shared experiences.

Bargain Box Drop-Off

MARCH 15, 9 & 11 AM | PORTICO

Join us for our monthly focus drive on March 15 at 9 and 11 a.m. Naples UCC will collect donations before each service. For March 15, we are collecting women's clothing and women's accessories. Please bring your donations to the drop-off table in the Portico. We're grateful for your generous donations and we could use your help!

Join the team!

We're looking for in-store volunteers, especially cashiers, on Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays to:

- Assist customers and support cashier operations
- Lift, organize, and sort donations
- Help prepare and stage items for sale

We also welcome donations that help us continue serving our customers and community. Your support—whether time or items—keeps the store running and ensures resources reach those who need them. If you have a few hours and a willing heart, we'd love to have you on our team. Please sign up with Samantha in the Gathering Place.

NUCC Member Orientation

MARCH 12, 4-6 PM | N-104

The Membership and Growth Committee has been presenting a new member orientation for the past two and a half years. We are excited to now open this presentation to all on a limited, sign-up basis.

During the orientation, we will cover:

- A brief overview of the United Church of Christ and Naples UCC history
- How Naples UCC is governed, including the corporation and church leadership
- An introduction to our Boards, Committees, Ministries, and social groups
- A guided tour of our campus, including history and fun facts
- Time for questions and discussion

Refreshments and snacks will be served. Space is limited to 20, so please sign up with Samantha Santarosa in the Gathering Place.

Our Neighbors in Immokalee: Listening to Real Stories

MARCH 16, 7:30 PM | MCSPADDEN HALL

In recent months, Immokalee has been deeply affected by increased immigration enforcement activity. Families are living with uncertainty. Children are missing school. Parents are fearful of seeking medical care or traveling to work. Daily life has become fragile for many in our neighboring community.

On March 16, we will gather to listen to hear real stories from those walking alongside these families every day.

Representatives from Guadalupe Center, RCMA, and Catholic Charities will describe what they are seeing on the ground

- What happens when a parent is detained
- How children are coping
- What schools and nonprofits are doing to provide stability
- Where help is urgently needed

The conversation will be moderated by Dawn Montecalvo, CEO of Guadalupe Center. (Guadalupe Center and RCMA are past recipients of grants from NUCC.)

As people of faith, we are called first to listen, to understand, and to care. This is an opportunity to better understand the lived reality in Immokalee — and to discern how we might respond with compassion and practical support, as Christ instructed us to do.

Ostler/Antonenko/Carlson - Sanctuary Concert Series

MARCH 21, 4 PM | SANCTUARY

Plan to stay after worship or come early! Pastor Mark will be interviewing Sheriff Rambosk about common scams and how to protect yourself. The program will take place between the two Sunday services from 10:15–10:45 a.m. and will feature a brief, interview-style conversation with practical, easy-to-understand guidance.

Topics will include:

- How and why scammers target older adults and residents of Collier County
- What to watch for in emails, texts, phone calls, and mail
- Key questions to ask yourself to determine if a communication is legitimate

Easter and Lenten Offerings - Immokalee Christian Migrant Association

This year, our Lenten and Easter offerings will support the Redlands Christian Migrant Association (RCMA), which serves the children and families of migrant farmworkers and other low-income households in the Immokalee area.

Many of our Immokalee neighbors live on the margins, facing food insecurity, limited transportation, substandard housing, and—amid recent events in our nation—deep uncertainty and fear. RCMA responds by putting love into action, standing alongside these families with compassion and practical support. It cares for some of the most vulnerable families by providing high-quality childcare and early education to more than 350 children, and it opens pathways to lasting success through its free K–8 charter school. In addition, RCMA’s family service and learning centers strengthen the broader community by empowering adults and parents with educational opportunities, English language learning, parenting support, and essential life-skills training—equipping families to build stability and grow stronger together.

When we support RCMA, we participate in a living ministry—one that nurtures children, opens doors of opportunity, and helps cultivate brighter futures. Just as importantly, we plant seeds of hope. We invite you to give generously this Lenten and Easter season. Every gift makes a difference in the lives of children and families in need. You can easily contribute by scanning the QR code below!
