ECIF 2019 FACTS & FIGURES:

Date: Fri, October 18th 2019

Time: 08:30 AM - 2:00 PM

Location: Carnegie Mellon University, Tepper Quad Simmons B Auditorium

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

AI is only starting to disrupt daily life. Where is AI today in research & development? How has it transformed technology? How will it transform technology? The ECIF will address the trends, technology, impacts in education and training, ethics, and future workforce. What and how will the different industries be affected and how can we prepare for the future in AI?

The East Coast Industry Forum will be a platform for representatives of business, government and education in the Pittsburgh area and beyond to come together to discuss and assess these new artificial development strategies. Approx. 180 guests are expected.
