

Invisible Disabilities

To celebrate Diversity Week, the Workers' Educational Association are offering a creative writing workshop in Rosyth exploring invisible disabilities

Thursday 8th September 2016
2.00pm – 5.00pm
Rosyth Parish Church, Parkgate, Rosyth

Come along to this interactive workshop and explore different texts which tackle the marginalisation of people with disabilities and in particular hidden disabilities such as deafness and mental illness. The workshop will involve reading selected texts as part of a group, discussing and exploring the meaning of, and messages within the texts, with an opportunity to have a go at writing your own piece with support from the Tutor and the wider group. Everyone welcome!
