

A package of tailored in-work support is available to young people age 16 to 29 throughout Scotland, where their employer considers additional support is required to sustain employment.

The In-Work Support offers specialist employer services, including mentoring, job coaching, training, and essential equipment.

The support package can be accessed at any point within the first 52 weeks of employment, with no costs to the employers

OpenDoors
Scotland

The Scottish Government
Riaghaltas na h-Alba

To find out more contact – opendoors@enable.org.uk / 01698 737 110