ANGELS AGAINST ABUSE
October 13, 2026

Angels Against Abuse met on October 13, 2026, at Bridgepoint Church Tyrone, 6690 Crosswinds Drive North at 8:30 am. President, Sandy Kearney, called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone to the meeting. She reported the Fall Fashion Show was sold out and was a fun day.

Ashley Tominus was named the Lightning Hero and was awarded $50,000.00 which will be used for the Angels where needed.

Our speaker was Loraine Fleurant, Kinship Pinellas outreach coordinator, a part of Children's Home Network. Her department deals with those taking care of children 0 – 5 years old who are not their own. They provide service to families who need help. They help children not in foster care or the courts and provide legal services. They provide developmental coaching and strategies; provide follow-up to identified concerns and monitor family progress; and provide educational materials.

Jane Federoff of Embrace Grace said they will have classes for pregnant and single girls the end of February. These girls are due in the Spring and will attend the classes.

Eunice Park announced PACE will hold a golf tournament on November 16 at Cove Cay Golf Club.

100 Women Who Care will meet on November 12, at 7 pm and will choose a charity to fund.

The Angels Christmas meeting will be held at Fifth Avenue Baptist Church on Wednesday, December 9 at 9:30 am.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Valerie Rankin
Recording Secretary.