

Why are we here today?

Thank you, Amy, for sharing this story with the Angels!

“Joey came into the system when he was just 5 years old, when his mother left him unattended to partake in illegal activities, and Joey was found roaming a main intersection alone. Joey now 9 has been in and out of foster care, with no stability. He needed a loving home that would be patient enough to endure his emotional health and be able to keep up with his active personality. After 4 years Joey will be adopted. The family needed providing him with a bed and necessities so that his transition would be seamless. The Foundation was able to provide him with all his basic needs and more. We recently put in a request for the Holiday Wishlist for Joey, we requested a bike, some toys and a tablet and the foster parents are so grateful that they will be able to provide Joey with a fulfilling Christmas, since it has been so long since he has had one. None of this could be done without Angels Against Abuse and other donors like you.
