

Meet the Office Volunteers of TLC!

Charles Baars:

I am Charles Baars. I have been an active Member of Trinity since May 2007. I currently serve & have served on the Social Concerns Committee, Local Habitat for Humanity and Thrivent Boards, Stephen Ministry/Leader and Usher for Worship Services. I have volunteered for Faith Builds (Habitat), Elementary/Adult Education Instruction, Family Promise (overnight host) and Trinity's Men's activities and fundraisers. Volunteering at Trinity is a way of sharing God's gifts with like-minded Christians and those in need.

Carol Ann Salber:

My name is Carol Ann Salber. I have been a member of Trinity Lutheran Church for almost 50 years. I have been a part of WELCA (Women of ELCA) for many years and have been treasurer of WELCA for 10 years. I have been in charge of several sales such as the fall festival and also in charge of funeral meals along with Harriet Shaffer. I have been volunteering at Trinity for the last year taking care of communion setup and changing linens at the altar. I like to help wherever I'm needed. I usually help Sherrie our Office Manager a couple of days a week with putting the inserts in the weekly bulletin, answering the front office phone, greeting guests and other office related tasks. I love the current work force at Trinity and just always want to help.

Deb Boatright:

I am Deb Boatright and I volunteer in the front office on Monday mornings from 9-noon. I help record Sunday worship attendance, answers the phone, welcome visitors, and do whatever else Sherrie our Office Manager needs. I have been a member of Trinity Lutheran Church since 2002. I am an active volunteer with the social concerns team, with special interest in Family Promise. I really enjoy my morning in the office because of the opportunity to interact with all the members and visitors who come in or call and I know that it frees up Sherrie to do the many tasks that helps Trinity run smoothly.

Bill Modrzynski:

My name is Bill Modrzynski. I am a member at St. John's Catholic Church, but have been attending Trinity with my wife, Annia Laurie Seifert, since before we got married in 2011. We worked together at Allen Press for many years after I came from Michigan and Oklahoma to study at KU. Aside from my volunteering in the front office on Tuesdays and Thursdays for the past year. Annia Laurie and I have been active with the sewing ministry to collect sewing machines, fabric, notions, yarn, knitting needles, and crochet hooks for Once We Were Refugees in Kansas

City. We plant, water, and care for plants in the courtyard and the north side of the church. We help with the various WELCA sales. My favorite part of volunteering is getting to know the people of the congregation and being helpful to them.
