My Emperor's New Clothes
A Musical Play for Children
By Larry Shue
from a story by Hans Christian Andersen with permission from Dramatists Play Service

Calling all young Actors, Singers and Dancers to join The Lancaster Playhouse in their very First musical play Performed-by-Students entering 4th through 12th grades and “play a part” in the entertainment for The Lancaster Festival.

This is what to expect at the audition. You will have the opportunity to read from the script, sing a simple song, and maybe do a little dance. We will help you if you like and look forward to meeting you.

If you wish to work on your audition in advance I recommend the following ways to practice:

- ◆ Read out loud and listen to yourself and remember to pause on punctuation like commas and periods
- ◆ Repeat singing a short song (no longer than 2 minutes) like “Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star” until you feel that you are ready to sing it for us

Where: First Presbyterian Church, 222 N Broad St, Lancaster, OH 43130

Please enter through the side door of the church facing Mulberry Street.

Audition sign up and an audition form can be found on our website
