

Cast of Characters for Clue the Musical

Character Descriptions:

Mrs. Peacock -- Black widow and chairwoman of Peacock Enterprises, married to Mr. Boddy and cheating with Col. Mustard. Acerbic, manipulative, sexy socialite. (Script notes suggest mezzo-soprano with belt.)

Professor Plum -- Super genius, author, intellect, impostor, and his family fortune was ruined by Mr. Boddy. Astute intellectual with a wry sense of humor. (Script notes suggest baritone vocal range.)

Miss Scarlet -- The femme fatale of the game, a former Las Vegas lounge performer, and former lover of Mr. Green. Shrewd, very attractive. (Script notes suggest a wide vocal range, with belt.)

Colonel Mustard -- He fancies himself a triumphant war colonel. He is implicated in the death of both of Mr. Boddy's parents and he is currently having an affair with Mrs. Peacock. A pompous, randy, military man with a strong personality. (Script notes suggest baritone vocal range.)

Mrs. White -- Mrs. White is the chief domestic of Boddy Manor. She is virtually enslaved by Mr. Boddy. A fun-loving Cockney maid. (Script notes suggest wide vocal range.)

Mr. Green -- Con-artist and entrepreneur, he is a former lover of Miss Scarlet. A slick, handsome wheeler-dealer. (Script notes suggest a baritone/tenor vocal range.)

Detective -- Appears in order to crack the case and solve the mystery. She rebuffs Prof. Plum's amorous advances. Hard-nosed, snappy & humorous. (Script notes suggest an “interesting singing voice.”)

Mr. Boddy -- The host of the game, current husband of Mrs. Peacock, victim of the impending murder. Mr. Boddy has a unique relationship with each of the Suspects that informs each character's potential motive to commit murder. To the audience, Mr. Boddy is a charismatic, handsome, playful host. (Script notes suggest a “soaring” baritone/tenor.)