

Gamaliel Waldo Beaman His Life and Art

by Leonard Allen Haug

Foreword by Diana Korzenik, Massachusetts College of Art and Design, Professor Emerita

A great holiday gift for yourself or someone special who enjoys local art history

After three years of extensive research, my fine arts case-bound limited edition book on nineteenth-century regional landscape painter, Gamaliel Waldo Beaman (1852 - 1937), is now at the printers and available for advance purchase!

This 200-page book (that measures 8 ½ inches W x 11 inches H) contains a comprehensive biography of his life, supplemented with over 80 exhibits and illustrations that provide insight into the period in which the artist lived and worked along with a portfolio of over 150 high resolution color images of his art work, the majority of which have never been exhibited or shared with the general public.

Follow his life story from his childhood years in Westminster, Massachusetts, to his early days in Northfield, and his travels throughout the Connecticut Valley, the White Mountains of New Hampshire, and the Western Territories. Learn of his travels abroad to Pont-Aven, France, and subsequent years living and painting in Boston among the elite artists of the day. View his many seascapes while summering in Manchester-by-the-Sea and his historical paintings of Lookout Mountain while wintering in Tennessee. Finally, return with him to Princeton, Massachusetts where he lived the last forty years of his life capturing local scenes, including those of his favorite subjects, Mt. Wachusett and Mt. Monadnock.

Mt. Monadnock, signed and dated "WBeaman '80," l.r., oil on canvas, 8 x 14"
