

Allegheny County Foster/Adoptive Families

Regis and Carol Bartel

Carol and Regis Bartel live in a three bedroom ranch style home in a residential area of Natrona Heights, PA. The Bartel's are an active family. They like to go to Splash Lagoon, Pittsburgh Zoo and out to dinner. They also like to go camping and fishing. They choose activities as a family. They are willing and anxious for a foster child to participate in their family outings. The Bartel's are currently open for placement.

Michele Alexander

Michelle Alexander lives in Pittsburgh, PA. She looks forward to spending time with foster/adoptive children and the activities that they like to do. The family does eat meals together and is close-knit. The family also likes to go to high school sporting events and to the movies. Michelle is home full time. She can take up to two children between the ages of birth to twelve. Michelle adopted a foster child on September 16, 2015.

Allegheny County Foster/Adoptive Families

Jason and Danielle Torres

The Torres family resides in Allegheny County in the Brentwood School District. They would like to foster/adopt a Caucasian or Hispanic child from ages birth to four years old. They have no preference of gender and will consider sibling groups up to two children. Danielle is a nanny for a young child. Jason is a Service Technician for Connect America. The couple's interests include; swimming, gardening, sports, playing video games and cooking.

Adam and Emily Carlson

Adam and Emily reside in McKeesport, Allegheny County. They are in the South Allegheny School District. The family is anxious to start a family together. They would like to foster/adopt a child. Emily works at Target and Adam manages a market. They recently adopted an 8-year-old boy. The Carlsons may foster another child.