COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

2 Kings 4:42-44

All sit.

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing food from the first fruits to the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, "Give it to the people and let them eat." But his servant said, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" So he repeated, "Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the Lord, 'They shall eat and have some left.'" He set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the Lord.

Psalms 145:10-19

- 10 All your works praise you, O Lord, *
and your faithful servants bless you.
- 11 They make known the glory of your kingdom *
and speak of your power;
- 12 That the peoples may know of your power *
and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.
- 13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom; *
your dominion endures throughout all ages.
- 14 The Lord is faithful in all his words * and merciful in all his deeds.
- 15 The Lord upholds all those who fall; *
he lifts up those who are bowed down.
- 16 The eyes of all wait upon you, O Lord, *
and you give them their food in due season.
- 17 You open wide your hand * and satisfy the needs of every living creature.
- 18 The Lord is righteous in all his ways *
and loving in all his works.
- 19 The Lord is near to those who call upon him, *
to all who call upon him faithfully.

SECOND READING

Ephesians 3:14-21

All sit.

I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL HYMN

There is a balm in Gilead

Hymn 676

Refrain

The musical score is written for a single voice part in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of six staves of music. The first staff begins with the word 'Refrain' above the first measure. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The second staff continues the melody. The third staff includes first and second endings, marked with '1' and '2' above the measures. The fourth staff introduces two verses of the hymn, with '1' and '2' above the first measure of each line. The fifth staff continues the melody for both verses. The sixth staff concludes the hymn with the instruction 'Repeat Refrain' above the final measure.

HOLY GOSPEL

John 6:1-21

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?" Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world."

When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going.

SERMON

NICENE CREED

All Stand

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Deacon: Gracious God of abundance, you feed the hungry from your hand and visit us in our storms: Hear your people as we pray for the whole world, saying: May we know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that we may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Give to your church, O God, the power to comprehend the breadth and length and height and depth of the love of Christ, that your power at work within us may accomplish abundantly far more than we can ask or imagine.

May we know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge,
so that we may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Let our leaders and all in authority bow their knees before the Father from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name, that they may use their power justly, feed the hungry and share your abundance with all your children.

May we know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge,
so that we may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Receive gifts from our children and from the poor in our community, and from their generosity create a plentitude which will satisfy the true needs of every person.

May we know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge,
so that we may be filled with all the fullness of God.

In every place of hunger, bring food, O God; in every place of poverty, bring abundance; in every place of terror, bring comfort and security.

May we know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge,
so that we may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Come to us in our stormy darkness and comfort us in our fears; with your generous touch, heal those for whom we pray. {List}

Hear our thankfulness for the abundance of your grace.

You gather up the lives of all your children, receive into your fullness those who have died. May we know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge,
so that we may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Priest: Your people look to you for nurture and healing, O Father: Fill our hungry lives with the abundance of your Spirit, that we may be fruitful disciples of the one whose compassion reaches across all boundaries, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Remain kneeling.

The Deacon then says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence.

Minister and People

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

PEACE

All stand.

Celebrant

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Hymn 456 O Love of God, how strong and true (from the Blue Hymnal in the pews)

1 *O Love of God, how strong and true, eternal and yet ever new;
uncomprehended and unbought,
beyond all knowledge and all thought.*

2 *O wide-embracing, wondrous Love,
we read thee in the sky above;
we read thee in the earth below,
in seas that swell and streams that flow.*

3 *We read thee best in him who came to bear for us the cross of shame, sent by the Father from on high,
our life to live, our death to die.*

4 *We read thy power to bless and save e'en in the darkness of the grave;
still more in resurrection light
we read the fullness of thy might.*

(SUMMER OFFERTORY MUSIC NOTE: we continue singing a hymn/song that is not often used, but could well be a potential “hit”! Please listen, follow along in the hymnal – if it’s a hymn, and there’s one close by in the pew, and PLEASE let Andrew know your thoughts and reactions!)

GREAT THANKSGIVING (Prayer A)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

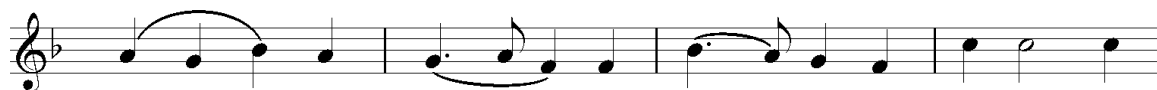

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Celebrant and People

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho -

san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -

san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

(you may kneel)

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

Amen.

The Celebrant then continues

And now, as our Savior
Christ has taught us,
we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Christ our Pass - o - ver is sac - ri - ficed for us;

there - fore let us keep the feast.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The musical score is written for four staves in G major (one sharp). The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below each staff. The first staff contains the first line of the 'Alleluia' chorus. The second staff continues the chorus and includes the phrase 'Christ our Pass - o - ver is sac - ri - ficed for us;'. The third staff continues with 'there - fore let us keep the feast.' The fourth staff concludes with another line of the 'Alleluia' chorus. The score uses a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are aligned with the notes, with some words spanning across bar lines.

The Celebrant says

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Let us pray:

In union, O Lord, with the faithful at every altar of your church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving. I present to you my soul and body with the earnest wish that they may always be united to you. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. And since I cannot now receive you sacramentally with my community, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself to you, and embrace you with all the affections of my soul. Let nothing ever separate you from me. May I live and die in your love. Amen

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

After Communion, the Celebrant says

Let us pray.

(you may kneel)

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. *Amen.

FLOWERS

The Flowers are given to the glory of God by Paul and Ellen Demetree in joyful thanksgiving for their 41st anniversary. The Flowers are also given in celebration and memory of Nicholas Vaccarello by Janine Vaccarello. The Flowers in loving memory of Margaret L Watkins, beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother by the Trubey family.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dear St. Michael's Family,

It is a joy to be able to gather again on Sundays in worship. Likewise, it fills my heart to see so many new faces, as well as familiar faces returning on Sunday. To enter together in-person to worship God and share in the gift of the sacraments is our Lord's gift to us, and we are privileged and blessed by the invitation to fellowship and commune with Christ.

Thanks to the vaccine, the risk to contracting COVID-19 has been greatly reduced to those who have been vaccinated. Yet I am aware that that not everyone has been vaccinated for various reasons.

As we continue our journey through COVID, I want to remind you of our safety protocols:

- If you have been VACCINATED, you no longer need to wear a mask on Sundays.
- If you are NOT VACCINATED it is critical to you and those near you that you WEAR A MASK in worship. This is not only to protect your own health but the health of your fellow parishioners as well. (Consider wearing a mask as a humble expression of your love for your neighbor.)
- The Celebrant will mask when presiding and distributing communion.
- The Celebrant will wear disposable gloves when handling the elements.
- We will continue to offer communion in one kind.

We will do these things because we want to do our best to provide the safest possible environment for both our parishioners, as well as visitors, to our worship services. I believe that we all bear that responsibility and I think it is a Biblical expression of loving and serving one another.

May God provide you wisdom and ever keep you safe.

In Christ's love,

Fr. Rick

St Michael's Scout Troops Spends A Wonderful Week at Summer Camp

Scouts BSA Troop 200B & Troop 200G spent an enjoyable week at Camp Woodruff, just outside of Blairsville in the Georgia mountains. Due to Covid canceling last summer's camping experience, it was many Scout's first weeks of summer camp. Scouts, leaders, and a few parents enjoyed the cool mountain weather along with LOTS of hills to climb traveling throughout camp. (We estimate over 25,000 steps per day!) Both Troops participated in morning Flag ceremonies, opening and closing campfires, camp-wide games, and a day of whitewater rafting.

While at Woodruff, Scouts took various Merit Badge classes including; First Aid, Swimming, Small Boat Sailing, Emergency Preparedness, Horsemanship, Riflery, Camping, Cooking, Chess and a host of other fun classes. Merit Badges are one of the ways for Scouts to advance throughout the Scouting program. It wasn't all work though, as the Scouts also played Ga Ga ball, completed the spoof Bigfoot merit badge, visited the trading post and got to hang out in their hammocks.

If you know of any boys or girls from 6th grade through 18 who would like to experience Scouting and be "Prepared for Life", please reach out to Erik Olson at Troop200Scouts@gmail.com. We meet Mondays at 7 pm in Quigley Hall and always love seeing new faces.

We are so excited to relaunch all of our programs this fall but we cannot do it without you! Here are a few opportunities for you to help with the children at St. Michael's. No matter if you have volunteered before or never at all, everything is very doable. We offer support and training wherever needed. Being a part of our team promises our children the programs they love! Please call or email Tiffany with any questions you may have.

We are asking for a response by July 15th for the first two opportunities listed so we can start planning!

Sunday School Teachers and assistants:

We have three classes going on during Sunday Services. We ask our Sunday School teachers to commit to teaching one Sunday a month. Curriculum and materials are provided. We need three teachers for our 1st - 3rd grade class and three teachers for our 4th and 5th grade class. We also need helpers for our ages 3 - Kindergarten class.

Back to Sunday School Celebration on September 12th:

We need a group of volunteers to help plan and volunteer for this event. We would like to do something special to welcome the kids back. This will be the first day all the classes are back in full swing.

Fall Fun Night:

No date or content yet planned for this one yet but wanted to get the kids together in the fall. We need a group of volunteers to help plan and volunteer for this event.

Advent Family Night on December 3rd:

Need a group of volunteers to plan and volunteer for this event. This would include organizing the tables the different ministries will run, decorating, dinner and clean up.

Christmas Pageant: Back stage helpers

Daddy Daughter Dance on February 4th:

Need volunteers to run or join the different committee's for this event.

VBS is June 13-17 2022!

And of course VBS will be back. You will start seeing information for this after the first of the year.

If you feel led to join this ministry please email Tiffany at Tiffany@stmichaelschurch.com and let her know what you would be interested in doing. Thank you!!

WHAT COLOR IS YOUR THUMB?

We will be constructing, planting and maintaining an herb garden for The Gathering to use in their cooking from the heart!

Ideally, we will have enough volunteers that we can rotate bi-weekly or monthly. We will also be planting the beds in the playground and maintaining the rosemary bed in front of the chapel.

If we grow more than we can use we will put together fresh Herb Packets for our friends at St. Francis House, One Heart for Women and Children, and the elderly couples served by our partner, Faith.

If you have experience in these areas, we would love to work with you!

Contact Mike at Mike@stmichaelschurch.com in the office for more information.

“God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them.”

- Hebrews 6:10

Serving is a great way to not just get plugged into your church but is also a great way to show the love of Jesus Christ to His people.

As St. Michael's Church work on plans to start the reopening process, we will have plenty of opportunities for you to serve very soon.

For questions and/or to sign up for additional information on serving at St. Michael's Church, please go to <https://tinyurl.com/ndz5ekb5> or reach out to mike@stmichaelschurch.com

Join us this summer for storybook based summer time fun with a mix of art, crafts, activities, learning and outdoor activities. Our camp is for ages 18 months to those entering Kindergarten in the fall. Camp will be offered Monday through Thursday from 9am until 1pm on the following weeks: June 21-24, July 12-15 and July 19-22. Contact the preschool office for registration.

FRIDAY MORNING PRAYER

Join Us Every Friday Morning
at 7 AM for Prayer.

Located in the Chapel.

“GOODNIGHT WITH MR. ANDREW”

Will Return on August 1ST!

"Calling all St. Michael's Photographers!"

We need updated photos for our new website. If you have photos you'd like to share please send them to Ashley Bennett bennett.ashleyh@gmail.com

THE GATHERING NEEDS YOUR HELP

We need Cooks!!!

We did it all through COVID, We have done it for 30 years, but now we need your help to keep St. Michael's most consistent ministry running!

Some of our regular superstar lead chefs for The Gathering are again finding themselves out of town or having to travel on business this summer.

If you would enjoy the challenge of creating main dishes from limited ingredients, while enjoying the company of some of your fellow saints, please consider this opportunity!

We will be holding a crash course training This Monday on what it takes to put these meals together and how it's done. Can you join us?

If you, or some you know may be interested, please contact me ASAP at mike@stmichaelschurch.com or call me at 407-900-1785

FLOWER SPONSORSHIP AT ST. MICHAEL'S

The flowers that adorn the altar every Sunday are given to the glory of God and as an offering of worship! We invite you to join in sponsoring the flowers each week in memoriam or thanksgiving for family, friends and occasions. This is a beautiful and vital ministry as we worship God through His creation!

To sponsor flowers during this season email andrea@stmichaelschurch.com. Please include your desired date/dates and the wording of your memorial/sponsorship exactly as you would like it to appear in the bulletin. Send this in by the Sunday prior to the desired date so that we can ensure that it is included in the next Sunday's bulletin.

SORT AND DELIVER WEEK

This is the 'sort food into bins and deliver week' for the 'Feed My Lambs' ministry. If you'd like to add your name to the list of helpers who do this, please contact Andrew at the Church Office.

BIRTHDAY PRAYER

O God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor, we pray, on your servant(s) N. as they begin(s) another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their life (lives); through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNIVERSARY PRAYER

O God, we ask that you pour your grace and mercies on this (these) couple/s. Guide them with your wisdom, protect them with your love, fill their home with your presence, and may they grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ all the days of their life. Amen.
