COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Nehemiah 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10

All sit.

All the people of Israel gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshiped the Lord with their faces to the ground. So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength."

PSALM 19

- 1 The heavens declare the glory of God, * and the firmament shows his handiwork.
- 2 One day tells its tale to another, *
and one night imparts knowledge to another.
- 3 Although they have no words or language, *
and their voices are not heard,
- 4 Their sound has gone out into all lands, *
and their message to the ends of the world.
- 5 In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun; *
it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber;
it rejoices like a champion to run its course.
- 6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again; *
nothing is hidden from its burning heat.
- 7 The law of the LORD is perfect and revives the soul; *
the testimony of the LORD is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.
- 8 The statutes of the LORD are just and rejoice the heart; *
the commandment of the LORD is clear and gives light to the eyes.
- 9 The fear of the LORD is clean and endures for ever; *
the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
- 10 More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, * sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.
- 11 By them also is your servant enlightened, *
and in keeping them there is great reward.
- 12 Who can tell how often he offends? *
cleanse me from my secret faults.
- 13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins;
let them not get dominion over me; *
then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.
- 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, *
O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 12:12-31a

All sit.

Just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body--Jews or Greeks, slaves or free--and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot would say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But strive for the greater gifts.

HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 4:14-21

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

NICENE CREED

All Stand

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Deacon: Baptized into one body, let us pray for those who are members of the body of Christ, and for all the human family, saying, God of life, hear our prayer.

For the Church: that we may recognize our identity as members of the Body of Christ and manifest the Good News in our lives, our families, and our workplaces.

God of life,

Hear our prayer.

For openness to the Holy Spirit: that we may nurture and develop the gifts that the Spirit has given us and use them to build up the Body of Christ and in service of others.

God of life,

Hear our prayer.

For St. Michael's: that we who hear God's word and are fed at God's table, may find joy and strength for life's journey.

God of life,

Hear our prayer.

For nations grieved by conflict, and people everywhere who live in fear of violence and oppression, that God will open new paths for peace and justice.

God of life,

Hear our prayer.

For those who have lost jobs or income, for the hungry and hurting, and all those for whom we ought to pray that the healing and comforting love of God will be made known to them through family, friends, and the faith community. {LIST}

God of life,

Hear our prayer.

For those who have died, that in God's kingdom they may know the fulfillment of the resurrection promise.

God of life,

Hear our prayer.

Priest: God of all peoples, hear the prayers of your servants and let the Spirit that anointed Jesus send us forth to proclaim your freedom and favor. We ask this through your Son Jesus Christ, in the power of the Spirit, who lives and reigns with you for ever and ever. Amen.

CONFESSON OF SIN

Remain kneeling.

The Deacon then says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence.

Minister and People

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

S-125

Celebrant and People

(you may kneel)

The Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with [] and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

The Celebrant then continues

And now, as our Savior
Christ has taught us,
we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Let us pray:

In union, O Lord, with the faithful at every altar of your church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving. I present to you my soul and body with the earnest wish that they may always be united to you. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. And since I cannot now receive you sacramentally with my community, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself to you, and embrace you with all the affections of my soul. Let nothing ever separate you from me. May I live and die in your love. Amen

SUNDAY

Located in the Main Church

NO RESERVATIONS NEEDED

FOLLOWING THE
10:15AM SERVICE

St. Michael's Vestry Nominees

The St. Michael's Nominating Committee proposes the following slate of Nominees for the Vestry, the lay governing body of our church. The slate will be affirmed at the upcoming Annual Meeting on Jan. 28. Vestry members serve for a 3-year term, unless otherwise noted, beginning with the February Vestry meeting.

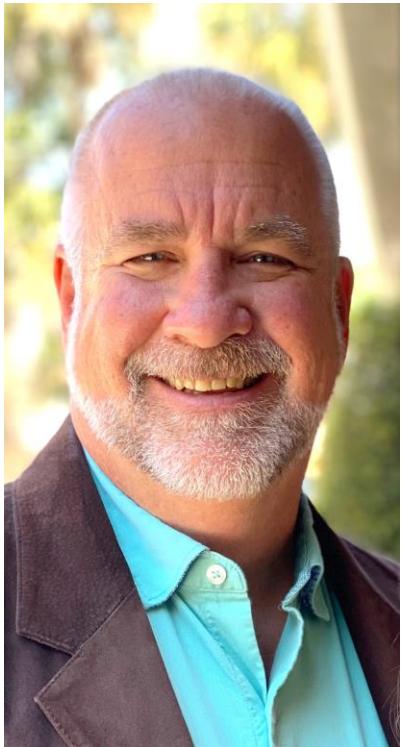

PARKS BENNETT

Parks Bennett and his wife Ashley were led to St. Michael's shortly after moving to Orlando in 2017. Together, with their two kids Maisie (4) and David (18 months), they have been active in the St. Michael's community from Day One. Parks currently serves on the Altar Guild, Ashley has been a member of the Vestry, Maisie is soon to graduate from St. Michael's Preschool, and David will begin his first year at St. Michael's Preschool this Fall. Parks serves on the Development Committee and the Board of the Christian Service Center.

Parks is Co-founder and CEO of Campaign Inbox, an email marketing and technology company helping political campaigns, non-profit organizations, and issue advocacy groups. He has a B.A. in Political Science and has held senior roles on multiple political campaigns across the country. Parks is an Adjunct Professor with the University of Florida's Graduate School of Mass Communication and Journalism. In his free time, Parks enjoys grilling, going to Disney, and cheering for the National Champion Georgia Bulldogs and the World Champion Washington Nationals.

RICK GIEROK

Rick, and his wife Katie, have been attending St Michael's for over 23 years. Their daughter Elena was born shortly after they started attending and was baptized at the church. Rick has been an active member over the years and has coordinated family camping trips, helped build a church in La Inez during the Honduras mission trip, assisted with the youth ministry/EYC and participated in the men's fellowship group.

Rick has a Civil Engineering degree from the University of Florida and is currently employed as the City Engineer and Public Works Director for the City of Eustis. He leads 100 employees and is responsible for many facets of running a city including water treatment and distribution; wastewater collection and treatment; streets and stormwater drainage; facilities maintenance; and engineering and construction management. Rick has worked at the city for 12 years.

In addition to his full-time work, Rick committed a significant amount of time to the community coaching girls' lacrosse. He founded a Central Florida youth lacrosse program that had over 200 girls competing each season in the youth league. He helped broaden the reach of girls' lacrosse in central Florida and strengthened the caliber of local high school girls' lacrosse teams. He founded and coached a national club team playing in the national championships in which he was able to assist many girls in obtaining college scholarships throughout the country at over 50 universities.

Rick looks forward to serving St. Michael's Church as a member of the Vestry.

JULIE MOTZEL

Julie was baptized and confirmed in the Episcopal church and has been an active member of St. Michael's for many years. She currently serves on the Altar Guild and as a Lector. This will be Julie's second time serving as a member of the Vestry.

Julie has a degree in Education from the University of Florida. After finishing college, she moved to College Park and for the last 34 years has worked in various positions at Walt Disney World. Julie currently leads the Disney Special Activities and VIP office. She has had the opportunity to travel to all the Disney theme parks all over the world for work. Julie created and developed the VIP Tour business at Walt Disney World and provided oversite and strategy for the Disney VIP offices at Disneyland Paris, Hong Kong Disneyland, Shanghai Disney Resort, and Disneyland in California.

Julie and her husband, Larry have been married for 10 years and they have five adult children together, Lawrence (26), William (23), Mary Katherine (20), John (20) and Will (20). Julie and Larry enjoy visiting family and spending time at the beach.

Julie looks forward to serving St. Michael's as a Vestry member.

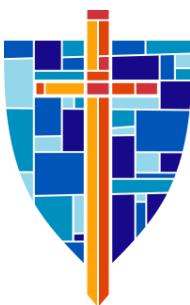

GREG POPE

Greg is a native Floridian raised in the Episcopal church. Throughout his youth, he attended Holy Innocents in Valrico where he served as an acolyte and was confirmed. Greg graduated from the University of Florida with a degree in Construction Management and has also earned a PMBA from UCF. After graduating from UF, he moved to Orlando where he met his wife, Brigit. They were married at St. Michael's in 2008 and it has been their church home since.

Greg & Brigit have two children, Brooke & Brayden, both baptized at St. Michael's. Greg works for The Walt Disney Company managing a portfolio of construction projects across the Walt Disney World resort.

He is excited about the opportunity to serve on the vestry.

"Jeans for Jesus" kicks off THIS SUNDAY!

St. Michael's is participating in the Christian Service Center's Souper Sunday food and clothing drive by collecting new (or VERY gently used) men's jeans.

We decided to focus on jeans as, when Fr. Rick, Fr. Greg, Andrea and myself visited the facility, they mentioned that while they were becoming more and more successful at finding work for many of the guests at the CSC. One problem was finding them appropriate clothing for construction or labor jobs. That's where we come in!

We are hoping to collect 300 pairs of jeans by the end of the drive on Sunday, February 13, the day of the BIG GAME.

They are asking for smaller sizes, 34 and below waist and all lengths. (As you can imagine, if you haven't had regular meals in a while, a size 44 won't do you much good.)

St. Michael's has done some amazing things in the past and I look forward to working on this project along side you.

Thank you for all you do! - Mike Robertson

“BRING BAGS BACK” WEEK

If you participate in this ministry, this is the week to bring back filled bags during the week, and drop off at the office, or bring back next Sunday, and leave them in the Narthex in church, or outside the office.
THANK YOU!

PLEASE NOTE: in regards to this ministry, for those not presently attending church, and maybe watching online, if you'd like to participate when we are not actively in the week of “bag filling and collecting”, it is possible to arrange for AMAZON and/or PUBLIX to deliver food to the church.]

How may we pray for you?

Please let us know how the Youth Community may pray for you, a loved one, or a situation. Nothing is too big or small. You may keep this anonymous or add your name.
No pressure.

In light of the surge in COVID-19 cases and out of an abundance of caution, the decision has been made to cancel EYC's trip to Rock the Universe at Universal Studios.

Please contact Emilie, St. Michael's Director of Youth, with any questions at Emilie@stmichaelschurch.com

JOIN US FOR NOONDAY PRAYER AND COMPLINE EVERY WEDNESDAY @ 12PM & 8PM

Wednesdays at 12 PM and 8 PM we'll gather via ZOOM from our homes, workplaces, and wherever we may find ourselves for Noonday Prayer and Compline.

This is an opportunity to connect with one another and spend a few minutes midweek in prayer.

You can easily follow along in your Prayer Book or online at <https://www.bcponline.org/> with the Book of Common Prayer online listed under DAILY OFFICES. Instructions for connecting to ZOOM will follow.

We are looking for Crucifers!

Are you interested in helping set the tone for worship? We are looking for Crucifers for the 10:15 service. Training will be provided. Help lead God's people into worship.

If you are interested, please contact Mike in the church office.

FLOWER SPONSORSHIP AT ST. MICHAEL'S

The flowers that adorn the altar every Sunday are given to the glory of God and as an offering of worship! We invite you to join in sponsoring the flowers each week in memoriam or thanksgiving for family, friends and occasions. This is a beautiful and vital ministry as we worship God through His creation!

To sponsor flowers during this season email andrea@stmichaelschurch.com. Please include your desired date/dates and the wording of your memorial/sponsorship exactly as you would like it to appear in the bulletin. Send this in by the Sunday prior to the desired date so that we can ensure that it is included in the next Sunday's bulletin.

HOLY COMMUNION AT HOME

We have "pre-consecrated" bread and wine available for those who will continue to join us in worship through YouTube available for pick-up at the church office.

WHEN TO PICK- UP COMMUNION:

- THURSDAYS and FRIDAYS
- 9 AM to 5 PM
- CHURCH OFFICE

* Please note: Gluten-free elements for those with allergies and/or intolerances are available by request. Please email andrea@stmichaelschurch.com by end of day Wednesday to ensure the elements will be available for pick-up Thursday and Friday.

“God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them.”

- Hebrews 6:10

Serving is a great way to not just get plugged into your church but is also a great way to show the love of Jesus Christ to His people.

As St. Michael's Church work on plans to start the reopening process, we will have plenty of opportunities for you to serve very soon.
