WE SHALL NEVER REBUILD NOVA SCOTIA UNLESS EVERYBODY WORKS TOGETHER

The Halifax Explosion occurred on December 6, 1917, resulting in one of the largest human-made explosions prior to the first atomic bomb. Thousands died, were maimed, and left homeless. As the city began to rebuild, posters with the message WE SHALL NEVER REBUILD HALIFAX UNLESS EVERYBODY WORKS were posted in shop windows to motivate citizens. This message resonates today as we work together to flatten the curve to reduce the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic on Nova Scotia, and the world.
