LENTEN JOURNEY FROM LIGHT TO DARKNESS

We are nearing our Lenten journey's end, and the darkness. As followers of our Lord we remember the events of long ago, when the twelve disciples entered Jerusalem with Jesus, but deserted him a few days later. We know that in our own lives, when things go well, we often know God is with us, but when we are afraid, when we are at risk, we may abandon our faith. Help us to remain faithful to you, even in times of deepest doubt. In Christ's name. Amen.

(Extinguish last purple candle)

Let us pray.

Holy One, you have journeyed with us through the valley of the shadows, and you will surely see us through to the other side. Help us to remain faithful to you even in times of deepest doubt and trouble. Help us not to be a floundering witness to Him, but a powerful force that binds us to the simple fact of Jesus' love for all creation, and for us, sinners that we are. We can deny the darkness with Him. In Christ's sacred name. Amen.

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

Spirit of the Living God

UMH 393

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me,
Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me.
Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 19:28-40 (NRSV)

<sup>28</sup> After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup> When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, <sup>30</sup> saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>31</sup> If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'" <sup>32</sup> So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. <sup>33</sup> As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" <sup>34</sup>They said, "The Lord needs it." <sup>35</sup>Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. <sup>36</sup>As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. <sup>37</sup>As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, <sup>38</sup>saying, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!"

<sup>39</sup>Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, order your disciples to stop." <sup>40</sup>He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out."

*The Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

GIVING OF OUR TITHES AND OFFERINGS

OFFERTORY PRAYER (In Unison)

O God of Glory and Majesty, we have stood with the crowds to sing your praises, and then we have been lured to other devotions. Yet you have with passion and compassion embraced us again and again as your children. We pray that these gifts that we bring and the gifts of our hearts on this special day may be worthy in your sight. We pray with humble hope that we might be your faithful disciples in our homes, our church, our community, our nation, and our world. It is in Jesus' name that we offer our prayer. Amen.

PRAVERS OF THE PEOPLE

SILENT AND PASTORAL PRAYERS

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
 Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
 and the glory, forever. Amen.

SERMON                    When We Feel Unwanted...                    Rev. Candee Martin

*COMMISSIONING AND BLESSING

*Enter into the spirit of our faith's Holy Week. Go quietly and confidently with the greatest story ever told living in your minds and your hearts and your actions. Amen.

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE Tell Me the Stories of Jesus UMH 277 (Vs 3)

[You are invited to wave your palm branch as we sing]

Into the city I'd follow the children's band,
 Waving a branch of the palm tree high in my hand;
 One of his heralds, yes, I would sing
 Loudest hosanna, "Jesus is King!"

*POSTLUDE

The symbol on the banner in today's service is the Chi-Rho symbol, a Christogram formed from the first two Greek letters of the word "Christ," chi (X) and rho (P). It was first used by the Roman emperor Constantine the Great who ruled from 306AD to 337AD.

This year's Lenten Offering will go to support two of our local missions:
H.E.L.P. and Camp Rainbow Connection.

Attendance Last week

Worship: 66
Sunday School: 44

Thank you to Carolyn Slye for writing our liturgy for the Lenten Journey from Light to Darkness.

Altar Flowers

One of the ways the Worship Committee has decided to observe Lent is by not having flowers on the altar during this season of austerity and simple reflection. We hope this absence of flowers during Lent (March 6-April 20) will amplify the resurrection message of the Easter flowers when they arrive!

Insights from search for a new church home

Avid runner and blogger Lynda Hawes and her husband moved a few years ago and made quite a few church visits. Here are some of her observations you may find helpful in encouraging more visitors to become new members:

- No public humiliation. Please don't make us stand in a room full of total strangers and introduce ourselves. We want to be anonymous since we're not sure we want to see you again; and, frankly, we're still seeing other churches. It's not you; it's us. We just don't know you very well yet.
- Acknowledge we exist. Being anonymous is not the same as being invisible. We're probably going to be a little confused about what to do and where to go, so having someone greet us and ask if we have questions is most appreciated. If you act like we're not there, we start to think we might as well not be there.
- Put it in writing. Spell out everything we need to know in the bulletin: when to sit or stand, where to find the words, even if you have one of those groovy new digital displays.
- No stalking. Please don't chase us down the street to tell us you were glad to see us. When you act like it's a miracle that you have visitors, it freaks us out.
- Remember us. You get a gold star if we come back and you remember our names, but just a friendly "nice to see you again" makes us feel like you noticed we were there.
- Have a website. If you don't have a website, we won't be coming to your church. That alone tells us you aren't ready for new people. There is simply no excuse not to have one. When, where, what. There are basically three things we want to know when we come to your website: when your worship services are held, where you are located, and what you believe. And we really like to see all three on the home page, but at least make them SUPER easy to find and no more than one click away.
- Tell us what you really believe. Be proud of what you believe and spell it out on your website. Progressive? Great! Theologically conservative? Super! But what do those things mean in the life of your community? Finding a new church home is not always easy, especially if the one you came from was such an important part of your lives. We were very, very close to our previous faith community; and it's hard to think of anywhere else coming close. Any number of the things that might bring us to your doorstep can make it hard to do much more than show up, sit quietly in the back, and sneak out afterward. But that's the beautiful thing about church communities — they bring new people into your life, they can open your heart and mind to new experiences, they can mend those deepest of wounds, and affirm your relationship with God. With all that on the line, don't let the little things mentioned above get in the way of connecting people to the Good News.
