Jesus is still calling disciples to follow him and carry out his mission in the world.

Our mission is an all-inclusive mission to share Jesus with the world.

We have good news to tell! We pray that we will miss no one as we share Jesus' message of love and acceptance with the world.

*HYMN

We Are Called

*OPENING PRAYER

We thank you, O God, for calling us into your church to be your people. We have gathered, God of grace and wisdom, because we have heard your call. You have reached out to us in Jesus Christ, you have touched us with your Spirit; and we have turned toward you, seeking to love as we have been loved. We call upon your holy name: empower us to worship and serve you, walking gently upon this earth, through the grace of Jesus Christ. Amen.

GOSPEL LESSON

Matthew 4:12-23 (CEB)

Move to Galilee

<sup>12</sup>Now when Jesus heard that John was arrested, he went to Galilee. <sup>13</sup>He left Nazareth and settled in Capernaum, which lies alongside the sea in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali. <sup>14</sup>This fulfilled what Isaiah the prophet said:

<sup>15</sup> Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, alongside the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, <sup>16</sup> the people who lived in the dark have seen a great light, and light has come upon those who lived in the region and in shadow of death.

<sup>17</sup> From that time Jesus began to announce, "Change your hearts and lives! Here comes the kingdom of heaven!"

Calling of the first disciples

<sup>18</sup> As Jesus walked alongside the Galilee Sea, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, throwing fishing nets into the sea, because they were fishermen. <sup>19</sup> "Come, follow me," he said, "and I'll show you how to fish for people." <sup>20</sup> Right away, they left their nets and followed him. <sup>21</sup> Continuing on, he saw another set of brothers, James the son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with Zebedee their father repairing their nets. Jesus called them and <sup>22</sup> immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

Ministry to the crowds

<sup>23</sup> Jesus traveled throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues. He announced the good news of the kingdom and healed every disease and sickness among the people.

The Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

GIVING OF OUR TITHES AND OFFERINGS

Touch us with your Spirit, O God;

Touch us as we give that our giving may reflect our faithful discipleship.

Touch us as our gifts go to work, O God;

Touch us in the ways of Jesus, that the struggling ones may find freedom in you.

Touch us with the will to bring change,

That despairing ones may find hope and the lonely may find community.

Come Holy Spirit and bless our gifts.

Amen.

A Night's Welcome Begins Saturday, February 15th

Our church will once again host the "A Night's Welcome (ANW)" program beginning Saturday, February 15th and going through the morning of February 22nd. ANW gives us an opportunity to minister to the needs of our homeless brothers and sisters by providing a safe, warm place for them to sleep and two hot meals (breakfast and dinner) daily.

Nightly volunteer opportunities include coordinating showers, preparing and serving meals, staying overnight, or washing bath towels and wash cloths. Sign-up sheets are located on the wall behind the Sanctuary.

In addition, I will need a few volunteers on Saturday, February 15th to help me prepare for the event. We have a little furniture to move, towels and wash cloths to bring over to the shower area, arrange the ladies sleeping areas by putting down carpet and their mats, as well as, bringing in all the mats and clean sheets and blankets to get them warmed up to room temperature. If we have families in the shelter, we will need to arrange sleeping areas for them as well.

If you have any questions, or would like more information, contact Carol Gardner in the evenings after 4:00 p.m. at 262-6075.

Saturday, FEBRUARY 29 from 9:00am – 5:00pm

Third Sunday after the Epiphany

Five 5 disciplines of teams that thrive

A study of more than 2,500 church leadership teams over two years revealed several distinctive features of thriving leadership teams.

Focus on purpose, the invisible leader of your team. Great teams pursue a shared purpose that prioritizes making decisions together rather than advising one member who then makes key decisions. Mediocre teams spend most of their time advising the lead pastor, sharing information, and coordinating operations, but they rarely go beyond that point. Exceptional leadership teams work together to do the most important strategic work in the church — making critical decisions regularly and continually.

Leverage differences in team membership. Great teams pursue diversity in personality, background and perspective rather than democracy or uniformity. Mediocre teams have too many people with the same gifts, styles, and backgrounds, or seek to include too many persons. Exceptional leadership teams are small, diverse, and consist of persons with complementary skills who concentrate their work on the leadership team.

Rely on inspiration more than control to lead. Outstanding teams prioritize leadership through relationship-based inspiration rather than role-based giving of directives. Leaders of mediocre teams prioritize control and directive leadership and neglect the development of positive working relationships. Leaders of exceptional teams focus on transformational leadership and the building of trust that together inspire and free the leadership team to perform with excellence while maintaining solid relationships.

Intentionally structure your decision-making process. While mediocre leadership teams make decisions in an unstructured, haphazard manner, exceptional leadership teams utilized a careful step-by-step process while seeking God's perspective and leading when making decisions.

Build a culture of continuous collaboration. Exceptional teams meet with intentionality, utilize collaboratively developed agendas, and work together continuously to make the most of meetings. In contrast mediocre teams tend to limit their collaboration to scheduled team meetings and, even when they meet, fail to recognize the benefits of effective meetings.

We identified significant positive relationships between higher team performance and the following four variables: The time a team spent making critical decisions; the degree to which a team sought God's perspective; a team's utilization of careful decision-making processes; the percentage of time that team members adopted a church-wide perspective (rather than a positional-based perspective) during meetings.

In addition, we discovered a strong negative relationship between team performance and team members' stress concerning a fifth variable — the team's dysfunctional communication process. ~ Lewis Center for Church Leadership

Celebrate Heart Havens Month

Heart Havens empowers adults with developmental disabilities to live and thrive in their community. Heart Havens depends on the support of church friends during February to sustain their mission as they do not receive any funding from conference apportionments. Please contact them to learn about participating in Heart Havens month. Additional electronic resources will be available on their website in January. ## Learn about Calling 21 internships

These nine-week internships are for college-aged young people discerning a call into ministry. Interns will acquire knowledge on the ins and outs of the church life from the perspective of the staff and lead volunteers. This may include leading in worship, meeting with small groups, hospital visits, working with youth in mission, or many other ways the church is actively involved in the community and world. Calling 21 is also seeking host churches for the Calling 21 summer internship. Interns spend eight weeks with the host church, learning what it means to work in the church environment. For more information visit <https://vaumc.org/Calling21> or email The Rev. Meghan Roth Clayton, Chair of the Calling 21 Team, at meghanclayton@vaumc.org.
