New staff arrivals

Hope Barone, DO, MPH

Hope Barone, MD, joined the Department of Dermatology in September. She received her bachelor's degree Connecticut College and her master's degree from Georgetown University. She is a graduate of the University of New England College of Medicine and completed her residency in dermatology at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, MI. She returned to New England and completed her fellowship training in cutaneous oncology at BIDMC.

She will be the Director of a new High-Risk Skin Cancer clinic for those with a predisposition to skin cancer and a history of multiple non-melanoma skin cancers and will lead the Pigmented Lesion Clinic. She will also participate in the interdisciplinary transplant clinic to treat and prevent skin cancers that may occur after organ transplantation and chronic immunosuppression. Her clinical interests include skin cancers, general dermatology, and dermatologic surgery. Dr. Barone practices at the Boston and Needham locations.
