

CardioVascular Institute

New Staff

Eduardo Saad, MD, PhD

Dr. Eduardo Saad joined the Harvard-Thorndike Electrophysiology Institute and Arrhythmia Service in the Division of Cardiovascular Medicine on September 1. He will be seeing patients in Boston.

Dr. Saad completed his residency and cardiology fellowship at the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro (Brazil), and advanced fellowship in Cardiac Electrophysiology and Pacing at the Cleveland Clinic. Since then has been serving as director of the Cardiac Arrhythmia Service and the Center for Atrial Fibrillation at Hospital Pro-Cardiaco in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Appointments: : 617-667-8800

Dannya Pimentel, FNP-BC

Dannya recently joined the Advanced Heart Failure and Cardiac Transplant Program. She was most recently at Nuvance Health-Vassar Brothers Medical Center in Poughkeepsie, NY. While at Vassar, Dannya worked in Cardiology and Cardiac Surgery.

Jenna Spinelli, FNP-BC

Jenna recently joined the Cardiology APP Service (CNP) and comes to us most recently from Kent Hospital in Warwick, RI, where she served as an inpatient Cardiology NP, and from Miriam Hospital in Providence, RI.

Joyce Larson, DNP, ANP-BC

Joyce recently joined the Hypertrophic Cardiomyopathy Clinic and comes to us from the BIDMC Department of Anesthesia and Critical Care, where she has served as an NP in the Pre-Admission Testing Clinic.