Awards, Honors and Leadership Positions

Chi-Fong Wang, MD, Academic Specialist in General Obstetrics and Gynecology (ASGOG), has been appointed Program Director of the OBGYN Residency Program. Dr. Wang previously served as Assistant Program Director and she will be supported by the continued leadership of Dr. Huma Farid, who has been our Associate Program Director for the past few years.

Dr. Wang has been a faculty member in our ASGOG Division since 2020. She completed medical school at Boston University School of Medicine and her residency training at Brown University/Women and Infants Hospital of Rhode Island. She is a full-spectrum academic specialist in general obstetrics and gynecology, and her interests focus on resident education, minimally invasive gynecologic surgery, and LGBTQ+ care.
