

Job Posting: Assistant/Associate Rector

Holy Trinity is seeking a full-time priest with gifts for preaching, teaching, and pastoral care to work alongside the rector to support and lead the various and growing ministries of our parish.

Parish Description

Holy Trinity is a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish (current ASA 316), well-established in the university town of Auburn, Alabama and dedicated to the core values of Gospel formation, beautiful worship, relational mission, and first-fruit giving. Encompassing all ages and a range of religious backgrounds, our congregation is blessed with engaged and collaborative lay leadership.

Position Description

The Assistant/Associate will share in the liturgical, pastoral, and teaching responsibilities of the parish. We are seeking a priest who will:

- Embody a passionate commitment to follow Jesus Christ and to form disciples of all ages.
- Share with the Rector in the ministries of ordained leadership, including worship, preaching, teaching, baptismal and marriage preparation, and pastoral care.
- Provide sacramental ministry and pastoral care visits as needed to parishioners in hospitals, nursing homes, and at home.
- Work well as part of a team, alongside the Rector and parish staff and in partnership with the congregation.
- Possess a warm, welcoming, supportive, flexible, and creative nature.
- Build relationships with and among members of the parish.
- Assist in the leadership and nurturing of meaningful fellowship gatherings.
- Be able to listen and speak with tolerance and sensitivity to diverse theological views.
- Be committed to proclaiming the Gospel through strong preaching.
- Take part in chapel services and in the spiritual life of Holy Trinity Episcopal Day School.
- Serve in other capacities as gifts for ministry intersect with parish needs.

Compensation

Salary commensurate with experience; full benefits package.
