MEDIA RELEASE

DATE: DECEMBER 1, 2020

Mobilize. Humanitarian Aid and Relief for the People of Honduras, Nicaragua, and Jamaica!!!

Extensive loss of life, destruction of livestock and homes and devastation of economies has been even more intensive as the result of two level 4 hurricanes struck in the Caribbean and Central America which were paralyzed by the global Covid19 pandemic since March 2020.

The Black Emergency Management Association International (BEMA) has teamed up with Mambo Mundo and New Orleans South Africa Connection (NOSACONN) to organize Operacion Asentamientos Humanos! Operacion Asentamientos Humanos is a disaster preparedness and relief campaign, leading up to an international physical and virtual concert, organized at the BB King Blues Club New Orleans on December 18th.

The concert features Grammy award winning Latin artists: Jorge Moreno, Xperimento, Jose Conde and others from the Caribbean who have volunteered their talent and time to help raise awareness, money and relief materials for thousands of people in San Pedro Zula (Honduras), Leon and Managua (Nicaragua) and St. Thomas, St. Ann, Kingston, Jamaica, whose lives and livelihoods have been all but destroyed by the increasingly catastrophic effects and impacts of Climate Change and Global Warming, the COVID-19 crisis.

Members of Operacion Asentamientos Humanos are asking all to support the victims of Hurricanes Eta and Iota. Get involved today and help save lives.
