

Women's Connection

August 14 – 16, 2026 in Montreat

Make your way this August with the women of First Presbyterian Church to the annual Women's Connection Conference in Montreat! This meaningful retreat offers time to reconnect with friends—both familiar and new—while tending to your own spirit through rest and Sabbath. Together we will experience inspiring worship led by women, engage in thoughtful and faithful conversation, and make space for reflection, renewal, and discernment.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Kristin Kobes Du Mez

Kristin Kobes Du Mez is a New York Times bestselling author, historian, and speaker whose work examines the intersections of religion, gender, and politics in American life. Known for her clear-eyed, compelling analysis of the American church, she writes and speaks for broad audiences with a style that is both accessible and incisive. Du Mez holds a Ph.D. in U.S. history from the University of Notre Dame and teaches at Calvin University in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Register Now!

Scan the QR code below to register for the retreat!

*Deadline for registration:
Sunday, February 8*