Prayer Covenant of Great Bridge Presbyterian Church

“Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.” Philippians 4:6-7

April 27, 2025

Pray, believing you shall receive: A faith to sustain you and guide you into a future, which is often uncertain. A gladness and joy as you worship and offer praise to God. A sensitivity to human need and a glad willingness to be the servant people of God.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING

PRAYERS for the WIDER COMMUNITY and WORLD

We mourn with Christians worldwide on the passing of Pope Francis.

Places in our nation and throughout the world plagued by violence, struggles for power, corruption, and war.

Those affected by natural disasters, as they move forward to recover from losses, rebuild personal properties, and whole communities.

All of our service personnel

Those who struggle with anxiety, depression, addiction, and who feel alone.

Those participating in the DivorceCare and GriefShare support groups.

MEMBERS in CONTINUING CARE FACILITIES

Roger Reinhold in Beth Shalom on hospice care.

In times of joy or sorrow, there's something incredibly powerful about wrapping yourself in the warmth and love of a handmade prayer shawl or blanket. The Prayer Shawl Ministry has poured its hearts and prayers into creating beautiful prayer shawls and blankets that are available at the welcome desk.

On the last Sunday of the month, prayer shawls will be placed on the front pew in the sanctuary to be blessed by congregants, as they feel led. These shawls may be picked-up after worship services, also.
