*Call to Worship

Ellie Sturgeon

Leader: We wonder together, "Who are we?"

All: We are athletes and artists. We are musicians and mentors.

Leader: Who are we?

All: We are curious and questioning. We are kind and confident.

Leader: Who are we?

All: We are serious, and we are silly. We care deeply, and we laugh freely.

Leader: Who are we?

All: We are quietly hopeful. We are proudly ourselves.

Leader: Who are we?

All: We are knowledgeable, and we are still learning.

Leader: Who are we?

All: We are all made in the image of God. We are all God's beloved children.

Leader: Come, God's beloved children, let us worship the Lord.

*Call to Confession

Oliver Toth, Liturgist

Leader: For some of us, it is easier to see the faults of others than it is to see our own shortcomings. For others of us, it is the other way around. For all of us, the practice of confession is a practice of telling the truth about ourselves and of trusting in the mercy and love of God in Jesus Christ. With confidence in God's goodness and grace, let us be honest with God and with each other as we pray together, first in silent prayer.
