A Word from SAHRA's President

Dear Sacramento Area HR Association Members,

This month, I'd like to shine a light on a valuable resource already available to our members: the Emerging Professionals Group.

This group is a dynamic network designed for HR professionals to connect and support each other. Whether you are new to HR or a veteran in the field, our group provides a welcoming space for members to connect with colleagues facing similar challenges and opportunities. Here are just a few of the benefits our members enjoy:

- Monthly Meetings: Regular gatherings focus on current HR topics and industry trends. These meetings offer a platform for knowledge sharing, open discussions, and problem-solving with peers.
- Networking Opportunities: The Emerging Professionals Group fosters a sense of community, allowing you to build lasting professional relationships with other HR professionals in the region.
- Mentorship: Gain valuable guidance and support from experienced HR professionals who can offer insights and answer your questions in a more informal setting.

Whether you're just starting your HR career or looking to refresh your perspective, the Emerging Professionals Group provides a supportive environment to learn, grow, and connect.

How to Get Involved:

If you're interested in joining the EPG or learning more about upcoming meetings, please visit our website at Sacramento Area Human Resource Association \(sahra.org\) .

This group offers a fantastic opportunity to invest in your professional development and become a more well-rounded HR professional. I encourage all members, particularly those early in their careers, to participate in this dynamic group.

Best regards,

Jenny Nguyen-Jennings

President, Sacramento Area HR Association
