JEWISH HIGH HOLIDAYS PROVISIONS in Sonoma County

Sonoma County is ready to welcome the Jewish New Year with quality foods from both our local kitchens and abundant markets.

Our Sonoma County FARMERS MARKETS are packed with local honeys, fruits, cheeses, baked treats and more!

There are so many great vendors and farmers offering the best of the season year round at these markets, we can't think of a better time than the High Holidays to come out and buy the best of the best.

While walking the markets look for Bodega's Mt. Eitan Cheese and their seasonal selection of Jersey Cow & Goat Milk Cheeses.

Stop by Omer & Tal and their ready samples, and learn about their incredible cheeses line up.

Petaluma's The Italian Corner are at most markets with handmade pastas, sauces, appetizers and great vegetarian mains that come frozen and can be preordered.

It also happens to be the time of stone fruit and apples so go out and get shopping for the sweets of the year to bring in The New Year.

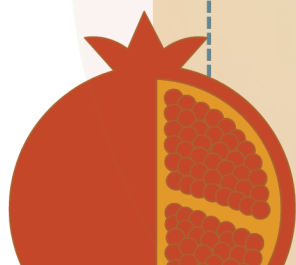

LA BODEGA in Sebastopol will host a dedicated Sunday dinner with a service led by Rick Concoff.

Reserve your spot today!

DREWISH DELI is offering a great spread that would make Bubbie proud from latkes to house-made Braised Brisket.

GROSSMAN'S NOSHERY & BAR has you covered for the whole mishpacha!

STELLINA PRONTO are featuring a Spiced Honey Cake- with peach compote & chamomile chantilly cream and Stemple Creek Brisket.
