

TRANS 101

EDUCATION, SUPPORT AND ADVOCACY

HE/SHE/THEY/WE

A primer on transgender identity for the caring, curious, and confused

Wednesday, January 21, 7-8:15PM only via ZOOM

What does it mean to be transgender?

Why are we asked to announce the pronouns that represent us?

What's the meaning of cisgender...intersex...gender fluid...non-binary...?

If you're confused and curious about questions like these, but unsure how to learn more, join us for this brief introduction to transgender identity and the trans community. No previous knowledge is required! Just show up with an open heart and mind.

With this foundation, we encourage you to attend the in-person event "Trans Journeys: Insights and Advocacy", February 22, where you'll hear directly from members of the trans community along with experts on the issues that they face and how to best serve as an ally.

Judith Richlin-Klonsky, Ph.D. is a sociologist who taught a variety of courses on gender, race, and social class for more than 25 years at UCLA, Sonoma State, and SRJC. She is a long-time member of Congregation Shomrei Torah where in 2020 she offered the virtual class "What's going on?! Race-based social inequality: why it persists and what you can do about it."

Heads up, parents: This presentation, while not explicitly sexual in any way, necessarily includes appropriate reference to human anatomy, sexual orientation, and gender identity.
