Celebrate Madison Black Restaurant Week A Delectable Journey of Flavor & Community

MADISON, WI – Get ready to savor the rich and diverse culinary tapestry of Madison's Black-owned restaurants as we proudly announce the eagerly awaited Madison Black Restaurant Week, taking place from August 13 to August 20.

In honor of August being Black Business Month, Madison Black Restaurant Week aims to amplify and celebrate the vital contributions of Black entrepreneurs, chefs, and restaurateurs to our vibrant local culinary scene. Throughout the week, participating Black-owned restaurants across Madison will offer exciting discounts, special menus, and unique dining experiences to showcase their culinary talents. From soulful comfort food to exquisite African-inspired delicacies, there will be something exciting for everyone to try.

Culminating the week-long celebration, we invite food enthusiasts and culture seekers to join us at the grand finale - the Madison Black Restaurant Week Food Taste Jamboree on August 20 in the FEED Kitchen parking lot!

At the Madison Black Restaurant Week Food Taste Jamboree, attendees will have the chance to sample a diverse array of cuisines, mingle with local chefs, and learn about the stories and traditions behind the incredible dishes on offer.

More details on participants and offers is forthcoming.

Let's come together to celebrate Black Business Month, embrace the diversity of our community, and savor the incredible flavors that Madison's Black-owned restaurants have to offer. See you there!
