MASSACHUSETTS WOMEN'S POLITICAL CAUCUS PAC ENDORSES RECORD NUMBER OF FEMALE CANDIDATES ACROSS MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON – The Massachusetts Women's Political Caucus Political Action Committee (MWPC PAC) announced today their endorsements for 67 women seeking election to all levels of public office across Massachusetts.

This year, more women than ever before sought out the support of the MWPC PAC. The MWPC PAC is elated to endorse 67 phenomenal candidates who will play a vital role in reaching the organization's commitment to increasing the number of women elected to public office and appointed to public policy positions. Of these 67 candidates, 44 are new endorsements, signifying the growing strength of a trend seen nationwide towards gender parity in all levels of governance. This year's endorsements across Massachusetts include races for Mayoral Offices, City Councils, and School Committees.

“The MWPC PAC is proud to endorse this fantastic group of women who have shown their unwavering commitment to the core values held by the MWPC and who will continue to pursue them while in public office,” said Pam Berman, MWPC Board President. “We believe that if elected, these women will continue their admirable and important advocacy for women, as well as serve as an inspiration for the next generation of female candidates. The MWPC PAC is thrilled to have a partnership with the astonishing 67 endorsed candidates from across the Commonwealth whom are seeking all levels of elected office and we look forward to watching them succeed in their political careers and beyond.”
