CIS WELCOMES DR. KRIS LINDSAY TO NEW IBERIA

NEW IBERIA- Cardiovascular Institute of the South (CIS) welcomes cardiologist Kris Lindsay, MD to its team of providers at the CIS New Iberia clinic located at 500 N. Lewis Street, Suite 100.

Dr. Lindsay joins Dr. Bose Cheeran and nurse practitioner Lisa Freyou in providing comprehensive cardiovascular care to the community of New Iberia.

Dr. Lindsay has been a cardiologist with CIS since 2015, and he is board certified in internal medicine and cardiology. He attended McNeese State University in Lake Charles, where he earned his bachelor's degree in biology. He earned his medical degree from the Louisiana State University School of Medicine in New Orleans. His residency in internal medicine was completed at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, and his fellowship in cardiovascular disease at Baylor Scott & White Memorial Hospital in Temple, Texas.

To schedule an appointment with Dr. Lindsay in New Iberia, call 337-367-5200.

About Cardiovascular Institute of the South

Founded by Dr. Craig Walker in 1983, Cardiovascular Institute of the South (CIS) is a world-leader in preventing, detecting and treating cardiovascular and peripheral vascular disease. CIS offers a comprehensive heart and vascular program with expert physicians trained in many specialties, including internal medicine, nuclear cardiology, electrophysiology, lipid management, coronary artery disease, peripheral vascular disease, valve disease and interventional cardiovascular procedures. CIS has earned international acclaim as a pioneer of research, development and education, as well as an innovator in the treatment of peripheral vascular disease. With a dedicated team of more than 800 team members, CIS provides comprehensive cardiovascular care at 22 locations across Louisiana and Mississippi, seven of which offer telemedicine services. CIS remains at the forefront of technology, providing the highest-quality, compassionate care. This mission has guided the institute for more than 35 years of excellence.
