

Ivy Kusinga is Senior Vice President, Chief Culture Officer, at Chubb, a global Property and Casualty leader with operations in 54 countries. Within this role, Ivy oversees the cohesion and clarity of Chubb's culture, which is hard-wired as an inclusive and equitable work environment. Ivy works with leadership teams supporting Chubb's processes for acquiring, developing and retaining the best talent, and building a robust, diverse pipeline that reflects the company's customer and distribution partner communities. Prior to this role, Ivy worked for Chubb Overseas General as VP, Business Development within the International Accident and Health team, and currently serves on several non-profit boards.