

Chevon Andre Brooks, Esq. is a founding member of the firm. He is an insurance and litigation defense attorney who concentrates his practice on the areas of property and casualty matters in both federal and state courts. Mr. Brooks also has extensive appellate experience which is a valuable asset in handling client matters from inception through appeal when necessary. He currently handles civil litigation defense and insurance coverage litigation, excess/umbrella coverage, labor and employment law and construction related matters, Federal Civil Rights 42 U.S.C. §1983 and municipal liability, premises and products liability, asbestos exposure, motor vehicle, workers' compensation defense and general negligence cases.

As a former Assistant Corporation Counsel for the City of New York, he also developed skills and expertise in municipal liability. Mr. Brooks has a reputation for zealous representation of his clients in litigation and obtained numerous favorable outcomes in a wide range of federal cases in the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York and New York State Court, including: class actions involving the New York City Department of Education; actions involving federal claims against the Department of Correction, Department of Homeless Services, Department of Education, and New York City Police Department.

Mr. Brooks was the recipient of the Top 40 under 40 Award to honor his professional achievements by The Network Journal of State University of New York at Stony Brook. In addition, Mr. Brooks will be honored this year by the National-African American Insurance Association (NAAIA) as its 2019 Corporate Leader of the Year.

Bar Admissions: New York

Education: The George Washington University Law School