

Public Affairs

CAHIP's work in public affairs revolves around educating the public to better value our industry. The more recognizable CAHIP becomes, the more power we gain to affect real change legislatively that enables us to best serve our consumers. We are working on both media touchpoints and membership toolkits to best position insurance professionals in the public eye.

Check out CAHIP's newsroom on our website for recent press and announcements!