Frederique Keller, L.Ac.
491 Main St. Northport
New York, 11768 USA

Sunday April 7, 2019
9:00am-5:00pm

Join Frederique Keller, M.S., L.Ac. for a general introduction to Apitherapy, safety protocols, and the use of epi-pen. Frederique is an Acupuncturist, Apitherapist, Classical Homeopath, Medical Herbalist, and Hobby Beekeeper. She has 25+ years clinical experience, and is also an International Speaker and Apitherapy Educator. She has appeared on numerous television programs including Dr. Oz, The Barefoot Contessa, Veria Living, and Martha Stewart. She has also been featured in several publications including Town & Country Magazine. Frederique is the Creator and Owner of Beepharm, Honeybees for Health and local handmade products of the beehive, visit www.BeePharm.com.

Learn classic and new techniques and protocols to include:

- Bee venom therapy (BVT), Test stings, Micro stings, and Mini stings
- Chinese fire cupping and Guasha
- Specific acupuncture point locations for pain management and other health issues to include Lyme disease, Osteo and Rheumatoid Arthritis
- Gain confidence and expertise to practice on your own
- Hands on experience treating each other and working on actual patients from Frederique's practice
- Although bee venom therapy is the primary focus of the workshop, other products of the hive will be discussed. You will also sample delicious local raw Long Island honey and fresh pollen!

Apitherapy experience and/or prior attendance at an AAS CMACC is preferable, however beginners are welcome based on intent and enthusiasm to learn in a small intimate group. Space is limited so reserve your spot and secure your attendance soon!
