Jeff Lanza
Retired FBI Agent &
Cybercrime Prevention Expert

"Cyber Security"

Join us for networking and a presentation from retired FBI agent and security expert Jeff Lanza. Hear real-life examples of how cybercrime occurs and what countermeasures businesses can take to combat the innovations of criminals, including prevention strategies and solutions for:

- Network intrusions
- Bank account takeovers
- Wire transfer fraud
- Ransomware attacks

Jeff Lanza was an FBI Special Agent for more than 20 years during which he investigated corruption, fraud, cybercrime and organized crime. He served as chief of internal security for the FBI's Kansas City region. He has presented on the topic of cybercrime at hundreds of events for management and technology specialists. He appears regularly on CNBC, the Fox News Channel and has informed the public on other national programs including the Today Show, Good Morning America, Dateline and CNN, among others.
