

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS!

Coaching & Resources for Entrepreneurial Women

Addressing Imbalances in Biomedical Entrepreneurship

1/3

NIH grantees
are women

13/100

patent holders
are women

3-8%

Venture Capital $ support women-founded businesses

CREW is an innovative program for women that aims to change this narrative

During the 12-month program, participants

- complete an online course on entrepreneurship
- engage in skill building activities
- partner with an accomplished biomedical entrepreneur for mentorship
- receive professional coaching
- take part in MUSC's Innovation Symposium in Charleston, SC

ELIGIBILITY

- Women faculty (rank of Associate Professor or below) & senior postdoctoral fellows
- Full-time position at any US college or university (with priority given to SC and NIH IDeA State institutions)
- All levels of entrepreneurial experience

COSTS

- Costs associated with the program including course fees and coaching sessions are provided by funding from the NIGMS

INQUIRIES

- crew-program@musc.edu

FOR MORE INFO:

SPOTS ARE LIMITED! Program acceptance will be granted in order of application submissions.