QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

(Additional qualification criteria, deadlines and exceptions not listed may apply.)

- Crime must be reported to law enforcement within 72 hours.
- Victims must suffer personal physical injury or death as the result of a crime. Some exceptions and limited benefits may apply for victims who sustained psychiatric or psychological injury from certain crimes.
- Application must be filed within one year after the crime date or within two years if good cause is shown for the filing delay.
- Victim must fully cooperate with law enforcement, the State Attorney's Office, and the Attorney General's Office.
- Victim must not have been engaged in an unlawful activity at the time of the crime.
- Victim's conduct must not have contributed to the situation that brought about his or her own injuries.
- Victim or applicant must not have been confined or in custody in a county or municipal facility; a state or federal correctional facility; or a juvenile detention, commitment, or assessment facility; adjudicated as a habitual felony offender, habitual violent offender, violent career criminal; or adjudicated guilty of a forcible felony offense.
- Relocation claims for victims of domestic violence who have an immediate need to escape a domestic violence environment must be filed through and certified by a domestic violence center in the State of Florida. The application and certification must be received by the department within 30 days from the date of crime.
- Relocation claims for victims of sexual battery who need to relocate due to a reasonable fear for their continued safety must be filed through and certified by a rape crisis center in the State of Florida.
- Relocation claims for victims of sexual human trafficking who have an urgent need to escape from an unsafe environment directly related to the human trafficking offense. The need must be filed through and certified by a domestic violence center in the State of Florida. The application and certification must be received by the department within 45 days from the last identifiable threat from the human trafficking offender which was communicated to law enforcement.

INFORMATION NEEDED TO APPLY

- A completed and signed victim compensation claim application.
- A law enforcement offense report documenting proof of a compensable crime.
- Proof of crime-related expenses, such as itemized bills.
- Proof of third-party payments, such as insurance, restitution, judgments or settlements.
- For relocation benefits, certification by a certified domestic violence shelter or rape crisis center (depending on benefit selection).

SUBMITTED CLAIMS

When your claim is received, you may be asked to provide specific medical and financial information. You should gather documentation related to the crime and have them available if requested.

You are not required to have an attorney in order to file a claim, and there is no application fee.
