

STUDENT RESEARCH OPPORTUNITY

bit.ly/usabilitystudent

This study looks at popular programs that teach general education elementary school students how to understand their feelings, be better friends, and make good decisions. We want to hear from different students to learn about the issues they face with these programs so that we can improve existing and future programs.

- 2 hour virtual session inside or outside of school hours
- Complete activities and share your thoughts on 2 school well-being programs in a group setting
- Complete brief surveys about each program
