Helping Young People Prepare for College

The Willits Branch Library is pleased to offer a series of classes that will help high school students understand the terminology and process of applying to college. In addition, they will learn where to find the best resources for making informed decisions, regarding their future education.

All
workshops
are free!

Classes will be held in
the Willits Branch
Library meeting room.
All high school students
and their parents are welcome.

Light refreshments will be served.
