

COUNTY OF MENDOCINO

Child Support Services

Robin Heller, Director

Introduction

The Mendocino County Department of Child Support Services strives to “Help Parents Invest in their Children” Our mission is to serve children and their families by establishing parentage and enforcing support orders in a fair and equitable manner.

I. Effective County Government Organization

The Mendocino County Department of Child Support Services has 2788 open cases as of May 31, 2024, serving both parents to ensure that their families receive court-ordered financial and medical support.

II. A Safe and Healthy County

III. A Thriving Economy

The Department of Child Support began “passing thru” state owed payments to families rather than recouping the government owed arrears. In our first month, Mendocino County collected and distributed $35,922.00 directly to case participants. This amount is included in the total collections and distributions of $512,457.00 for the month of May 2024.

IV. A Prepared and Resilient County
