People with this kind of leader are inspired to become the best version of themselves and to produce their best work. The Leadership Book Club kicks off on April 10th and ends August 14th. MANAGEMENT ROUNDTABLE SESSIONS

A cohort of 42 managers across the County are currently participating in the new 5-part Management Roundtable sessions designed to offer a platform for managers to connect, learn best practices and share real-world challenges and solutions. The Roundtable sessions foster a collaborative community committed to managerial excellence and proactive problem-solving. Completed sessions include: "Retention & Engagement" and "5 Pillars of Exemplary Leadership" with discussions around 'Modeling the Way' and 'Inspiring a Shared Vision'. The 3rd roundtable in the series will take place on March 20th and will explore the significance of 'Challenging the Status Quo'. Many participants express a real value in hearing from other managers in various departments and understanding they share many of the same struggles.

Managers wishing to be in the cohort for the Fall Management Roundtable should contact fordks@mendocinocounty.gov. Click HERE to view the flyer
