Confirmation of Parishioner Status For In-Parish Tuition Rate

Active, fully participating members are defined as those who regularly participate in Mass attendance and involve themselves in the various outreach/educational programs of the parish. This means being formally registered in the parish, making an annual stewardship pledge and fulfilling it, participating in the Annual Catholic Appeal, and helping and participating with the spirit and social life of the parish.

All families requesting in-parish tuition are required to fill out this form and have it signed and dated by pastor or designated representative. The school will regularly check status with the parish, and families who no longer fulfill the requirements will be billed at the out-of-parish rate.
