

2022

BATTLE OF THE BOOKS

Catholic School Librarian Association of Western Washington organized the 4th annual Battle of the Books competition for students in grades 4 - 8. Nine different Catholic schools participated in the program. The books selected for the battle were chosen by a committee of librarians in the archdiocese. This year 339 students on 87 teams participated in this extra-curricular activity.

MIDDLE SCHOOL FINAL

MAY 25TH VIA ZOOM

In addition to regular schoolwork, participants in the Middle School Battle of the Books read from the list of 10 novels and prepared their team of three or four students to participate in a tournament for readers. The result are as follows:

Winner: Eastside Catholic led by librarian Doug Ammons

2nd Place: St. Luke led by librarian Jennifer Feucht

3rd Place: Our Lady of Guadalupe led by librarian Beth Sommerville

SASQUATCH - INTERMEDIATE FINAL

MAY 26TH VIA ZOOM

The Sasquatch Award Book Battle (intermediate level grades 4-6) took place Thursday, May 26 via Zoom. In addition to regular schoolwork, participants read 12 novels and competed as a team in a Jeopardy style tournament answering questions about the books nominated for the Sasquatch Book award sponsored by the Washington Library Association.

The results are as follows.

Winner: 1st Place Holy Rosary WS led by librarian Rebecca Wallace

2nd Place Our Lady of Guadalupe led by librarian Beth Sommerville

3rd Place Our Lady of Fatima led by librarian Elena Larkin

Participants:

St. Catherine School led by librarian Jodie Anderson

St. Francis of Assisi School led by librarian Diana Hautala

St. George School led by librarian Katie McKeehan Hart

St. Joseph I School ed by librarian Merry Tucker

St. Luke School led by librarian Jennifer Feucht