Intersections of Mercy: Catholics Advocating for Housing Justice and Homeless Services

Are you concerned about the increase in homelessness in our area? Join other Catholics from South Seattle Deanery parishes for a day of advocacy on Saturday, May 14th from 9:30am-12pm at St. James Cathedral Hall (803 Terry Avenue). Learn about Catholic social teaching on housing and homelessness and how we can raise our voices to advocate. Hear about the state of housing and homelessness from the King County Regional Homeless Authority and City Councilmembers Lisa Herbold and Andrew Lewis, who sit on the KCRHA Governing Committee. See how Catholic parishes and agencies are supporting the efforts in our region. Engage in civil dialogue to learn from one another and find ways to work together to bring housing justice to all. No RSVP required. Park in the O'dea High School lot or take public transit. Questions? Erin at ErinMa@ccsww.org
