Clinicians: join our team!

Join UMass Human Rights and Asylum Program (UHRAP)

WHO WE ARE

UHRAP is a student-run, faculty-supported program at UMass Chan that provides forensic medical evaluations for individuals seeking asylum.

WHAT WE DO

- Conduct medical-legal evaluations for asylum seekers
- Collaborate with legal and community partners
- Support survivors of torture, persecution, and human rights violence
- Provide education and training in asylum and human rights medicine

HOW CLINICIANS CAN HELP

- Conduct or co-evaluate asylum exams (with remote options available)
- Support student training and mentorship
- Engage in clinic sessions (frequency flexible)
- Be part of a multidisciplinary team advancing human rights
